- Prebendal Manor Cup

The Prebendal Manor Cup is awarded to those who have made an outstanding contribution to the club. This year it was awarded to two people:

Mike Tibbets

Rosemary de Wilde

Both Mike and Rosemary are both standing down from the committee have given many years of dedicated service to the club. Most recently they have been hugely instrumental in the multi-year project to install the court lighting which was successfully completed this year and transformed the club facilities and usage. Mike spear-headed the overall project and Rosemary successfully applied for S106 funding allowing the project to go ahead. The committee extended their warmest thanks to them both for their commitment, drive and dedication to the club over many years.

11. Motions received from members in advance.
No motions had been received.
12. Election of Officers - it was agreed that given 4 members of the committee were standing down this should be undertaken at a later date once their positions were filled.
